

Bridge Party Compliments Visiting Girls in Ardmore

One of the most attractive bridge affairs given this season was that of Miss Helen Kilson, 203 A street N. W., honoring Miss Sara Morton of Fort Worth, guest of Miss Marian Clifton and the Misses Catherine Bettes and Lula Mae Laughlin of Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha, guests of Miss Mona Ruth Webb.

The home was beautifully decorated in chrysanthemums and ferns. Violet talcum powder pockmarks in glove sizes tied in pink ribbons, the prevailing color tone, were given each guest as favors. The guests of honor were also presented with lovely corsage bouquets of smilax and pink rose buds.

Prizes presented to the successful players were a three piece lingerie set for the high score and a two piece set for the second score. After the game a very delectable salad course was served with chocolate to the following guests:

Miss Sara Morton, Ft. Worth
Miss Lula Mae Laughlin, Chickasha
Miss Catherine Bettes, Chickasha
Miss Mary Goddard
Miss Mary Griffith
Miss Dixie McGhee
Miss Maude Renfro

Philharmonic Club To Have Program

Mrs. Frank Adams will be leader at a miscellaneous program to be given by the Philharmonic Club Wednesday, December 6th. The meeting will be held at the First Christian church at 3 p. m. instead of the Chamber of Commerce.

The following program will be given:

Vocal solo, "My Desire" (Nevin)—Mrs. Romy Adams.
Musical Reading—Mrs. Silas Egley.
Violin Solo, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" (C. Saint-Saens)—Mrs. Gertrude Kirkbright.
Vocal Solo, Christmas Lullaby—Mrs. Ira B. Wilson.
Brindley Dance—Misses Marie Wright and Mary Hudson.
Vocal Solo, "Ava Maria"—Miss Mable Frances Robinson.
Vocal Duet, Misses Mary (Mary Turner Salter) by Mrs. N. C. Wood.
Mrs. Frank Adams.
Vocal Solo, Light (John Prindle)—Mrs. Arthur Kyle.

Mrs. Hayes, a returned missionary from the Orient, will meet with the women of the church Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. She will have an interesting display of Chinese art and fancy work.

Members of the different denominations of Ardmore are invited to be present.

Mrs. D. C. Mayfield entertained the members of the Twelve and One club on Friday, when four tables of bridge were formed.

Mrs. Hill made high score and was presented with a lovely favor, and Mrs. Simons received the favor for second high score, also a lovely gift. Mrs. Lewis received the guest prize.

Mrs. G. P. McVey will entertain the club next week.

Daughter of Congressman Chas. Carter To Be January Bride in Washington

Miss Julia Josephine Carter

Announcement was made recently of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Julia Josephine Carter, youngest daughter of Congressman Charles D. Carter of Ardmore and Mr. Gustavus Welch. The wedding will take place during January at the Fondry Methodist church, Washington, D. C. Miss Carter who is one of the most charming members of the younger social set of the National Capital is being entertained this week by Ardmore friends.

The bride-to-be attended Ardmore schools while a child. Later she went to school in Washington and graduated from Bristol College with honors.

Her simplicity and charm have won for her an ever widening circle of friends, none of whom remember her with deeper affection than those in Ardmore, with whom she has kept in touch constantly, despite her many activities in charity and social work in Washington.

She is an active worker in the Methodist church in the capital at which the wedding is to be solemnized and is assistant librarian in the junior department.

Miss Carter also has kept up her interest in charity work, she has received official recognition for her extensive activities during the war and has become widely known and very popular through these activities.

Miss Carter and her sister, Miss Stella Carter, who has been very close to her father and who has acted as his personal secretary will leave Ardmore Wednesday for Washington.

Mr. Welch is football coach at Washington State College, Pullman, Washington, and the couple will make their future home at that place.
